THE CALL

Office Closing

Take note of our holiday schedule

Roanoke Electric Co-op offices will be closed for the holiday, Nov. 26-27. We will resume normal business operations on Monday, Nov. 30. We extend our best wishes for a happy and healthy Thanksgiving, with sincerest appreciation for you, our member-owners!

Making the Grade

Co-op advances drive for 'best in class'

The pursuit of excellence recently led the employees of Roanoke Electric Co-op to the classroom, where the lessons learned may have far-reaching implications for the co-op and its membership. Read more.

Budget Billing

Taking 'shock and awe' out of electric bills

Winter's chill has many of us cranking up the thermostat. And while we welcome the comfort it brings to our home, we dread the higher electric bill it can also bring to our mailbox. To better predict the "amount due" on your next billing statement, check out Roanoke Electric's budget solution. Read more.

A little caulk goes a long way in savings

To caulk or not to caulk? That is the question, especially if you discover cold air sneaking in through the cracks and gaps around your home. Making the choice to grab that caulk gun could help you realize energy savings up to 10 percent. Read more.

How much energy did I use today?

You don't have to wait until your next billing statement to see how much energy you have used on any given day. Everything you've always wanted to know about your electric bill, but were afraid to ask, is just a click away. Read more

---

CHECK OUT

The many ways you can stay plugged in on important energy issues:

The Response   The Call (archives)

Flashes   Carolina Country

Join Our Mailing List!

Contact: Brittany Tann, Editor

Roanoke Electric Cooperative, Aulander, NC

252-209-2236

www.roanokeelectric.com

Like me on Facebook

Follow me on twitter

View my profile on Linked in