

THE CALL

A BIWEEKLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

MAKING CONNECTIONS

Roanoke Connect pilot underway

Roanoke Electric Co-op continues to mark progress with its ongoing Roanoke Connect pilot project, a major step in its effort to bring high-speed internet to the region. "For us to become the utility of the future, this level of connectivity is essential," CEO Curtis Wynn told a recent gathering of local community leaders. Read more.

BRIGHT IDEAS

Deadline approaches for 'Bright Ideas'

Roanoke Electric Co-op is making it possible for teachers with bright ideas to shine light on new learning opportunities for local youth. And for those educators who apply early to reap the benefits of the Bright Ideas program, there is an added incentive. Early bird deadline: August 15. Read more.

REC SOLUTIONS

Is that money flowing out of your window?

If you answered "yes" to that question and you are looking for a great way to improve the energy efficiency in your home, search no more. Caulking or weather stripping around windows and doors to seal air leaks can keep the rising heat at bay. It's just one of the ways Roanoke Electric Co-op's Upgrade to $ave program can help you save on energy costs. Check it out
