

THE CALL

A BIWEEKLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

MAKING CONNECTIONS

Internet service pricing announced

With the recent rollout of Roanoke Electric Co-op's high-speed internet service, one burning question lingered: How much will it cost to subscribe? For inquiring minds, that question was answered recently when the co-op announced pricing and plans to expand service over the next two to four years. Read more.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

Linemen help storm recovery efforts

When Hurricane Irma left a path of wide-spread destruction and power outages in its wake, Roanoke Electric Co-op stood ready to respond. The co-op recently mobilized six linemen and three bucket trucks to join in power restoration efforts in Georgia. "We are proud of our linemen and the sacrifices they are making in this critical mission to restore power," said co-op CEO Curtis Wynn. "We commend them for their courage and dedication in this time of great need."

JOIN US!

October is Co-op Month: Let's celebrate!

Do you know what time it is? It's almost National Co-op Month, and that means it's a time to celebrate. Please mark your calendar to join Roanoke Electric Co-op in October, as we observe the shared principles, rich history and enduring benefits of belonging to a cooperative family. Read more.

SMART SAVINGS

How does $450 in savings sound?

No, that's not a typo, but the amount of money members-owners can save by taking advantage of the co-op's latest ecobee3 thermostat offer. This added savings comes with the announcement that the smart device is now being offered free of charge to member-owners. Check it out!

WHO DUNNIT?

What on earth caused my lights to go out?

Ever wondered what causes the power to go out? While weather is the most common cause of outages, Mother Nature isn't the only culprit. The causes range from vehicles colliding with utility poles to animals making contact with electricity equipment, as this video demonstrates.

Brittany Tann, Editor | Roanoke Electric Cooperative | 252-209-2236 |
socialmedia@roanokeelectric.com | www.roanokeelectric.com

Roanoke Electric Cooperative

Your Touchstone Energy® Cooperative

Visit Our Website