

THE CALL

A BIWEEKLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

THE BIG CHILL

Want to make your home more energy efficient?

Is that chilly air in your home tempting you to crank up the heat? Before you touch that dial, reach out to Roanoke Electric Co-op instead. There is still time and money available to help you improve your home's energy efficiency through the Upgrade to $ave program. If you don't want to miss out on this special opportunity, check this out.

OPERATION OUTREACH

Rounding up spare change for positive change

By rounding up their electric bill to the next highest dollar, Roanoke Electric Co-op member-owners were recently able to contribute more than $3,000 to the community. Who were the recipients of all this goodwill? Two non-profit initiatives supporting our local youth.

REC SOLUTIONS

How to rein in your energy usage and spending

Life can be full of surprises. But one surprise you don't want to get is an unanticipated high electric bill this winter. You can avoid that "shock and awe" by simply signing up for Roanoke Electric Co-op's text alert program. It's a great way to manage your energy consumption and stay on track with your financial goals. Check it out.

TEMPERATURE CHECK

Water heater setting: Have you checked yours lately?

Having the temperature set too high on your home's water heater is not only a potential hazard to your health, but a potential blow to your budget. Even more reason to check your water heating setting and, while you're at it, check out Roanoke Electric Co-op's water heater rebate program. Read more.

GIVING THANKS

Co-op offices set to close for Thanksgiving holiday

Roanoke Electric Co-op offices will be closed Thursday and Friday, Nov. 23 and 24, in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday. Our offices will resume normal business operations on Monday, Nov.

27. Your co-op family wishes you all a very happy and blessed Thanksgiving!
